Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Friday 30 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy in north, brighter in south.

Today:
A mainly dry but rather cloudy start to the day. Northern parts remain largely cloudy but more southern and southwestern parts become brighter with sunny spells and a few light showers developing. Cool northerly breeze, highest temperatures across the south. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Some late sunny spells in south but generally a cloudy evening with, especially in the north and east, patchy light rain. Becoming mainly dry overnight with some clear spells developing. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Saturday:
Dry and bright with sunny spells across the south but Caithness and Sutherland look cloudier with a few mainly light showers. Feeling rather cool in the northerly breeze. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Mainly dry with clear or sunny spells Sunday and Monday, although rather cool despite the northerly breeze easing. Sunny spells and showers Tuesday, but more persistent rain later in west.
